

McKinsey Consulting Academy

At McKinsey&Company, the global management consulting firm, we help the world's leading companies and institutions address key challenges, and achieve significant and lasting impact in their business. The McKinsey Consulting Academy, taking place the whole day of 24 November 2012, will give you the opportunity, through our professional program and informal discussions, to meet our consultants, and learn more about McKinsey, the way we work, as well as the career opportunities we offer.

If you have strong academic credentials and are in your final year of your studies or have up to 3 years of professional experience, and are excited about management consulting, we would like to hear from you!

Interested? Apply through www.mckinsey.gr by 21 October 2012 (please mention the reference code MCA04 at your CV).
