

Junior International Programme

Vacancy

We are searching for talented, young people who are interested in working for an International Company in the road passenger transport sector.

What does it involve?

- 3 year intensive preparation before taking up management responsibilities in one of our operations around the world
- Initial practises in ALSA's diverse intallations in Spain
- Reporting directly to the Department's Director and being mentored by the Transport Division Director of the Group
- Moving to Malta or Cyprus to commence training with a local operator
- Aiming to develop into a high-performing professional
- Acquire Management skills

In order to be eligilbe for this programme, candidates must be:

- University graduates
- Proficient in English (minimum of level B1)
- Fully available to participate in international programmes
- Willing to pursue career trajectories that involve international moves in the present and/or future

Interested candidates are kindly requested to submit their CV by e-mail to the Director of Human Resources on jip@publictransport.com.mt

