MONTH

Help your students shape their future

- Young people under the age of 25 are three times more likely to be unemployed than any other age group
- 1.1 billion jobs will fundamentally change due to technological progress through the next decade
- 40% of employers state that they can't find talent with the skills their businesses need. Lack of work experience is one of the main barriers
- Internships and apprenticeships are becoming a crucial part of career development

The Adecco Group is the world's leading HR solutions partner with more than 30,000 employees in 60 countries.

We transform the world of work one job at a time.

As part of the Adecco Group, we have created initiatives guided to tackle youth unemployment and skills shortages, and to empower young people with the skills and experience necessary to shape their future.

Let's present them!

What is the 'CEO for One Month' Programme?

Through the last 10 years, nearly 300 talented young people have had the opportunity to shadow the Adecco Group leadership in their country of residence for one Month, experiencing first hand what it takes to run a country branch of major international company.

One exceptional candidate is also chosen each year to shadow the global CEO of the Adecco Group each year.

Since 2015, the 'CEO for One Month' Programme has grown from 32,000 to over 200,000 applicants, showcasing the growing importance of and interest in internships.

‘CEO for One Month’ is an initiative that offers young people the possibility to develop and showcase their potential, to learn what it takes to succeed as a business leader and to acquire the skills and the experience needed to get a foot on the career ladder.

At national level, one successful candidate is selected from the applicant pool to shadow the Adecco Group’s country- level CEO for one full month, working side by side and experience the daily life of a senior business leader.

Ten outstanding national participants are then selected for a Global Bootcamp and one is chosen to work alongside and shadow the Global CEO of the Adecco Group for another month.

Following their time with the country managers, a number of participants of the programme stay with the Adecco Group, kickstarting their career!

What if one of your students could become the Adecco Group's next Global 'CEO for One Month'?

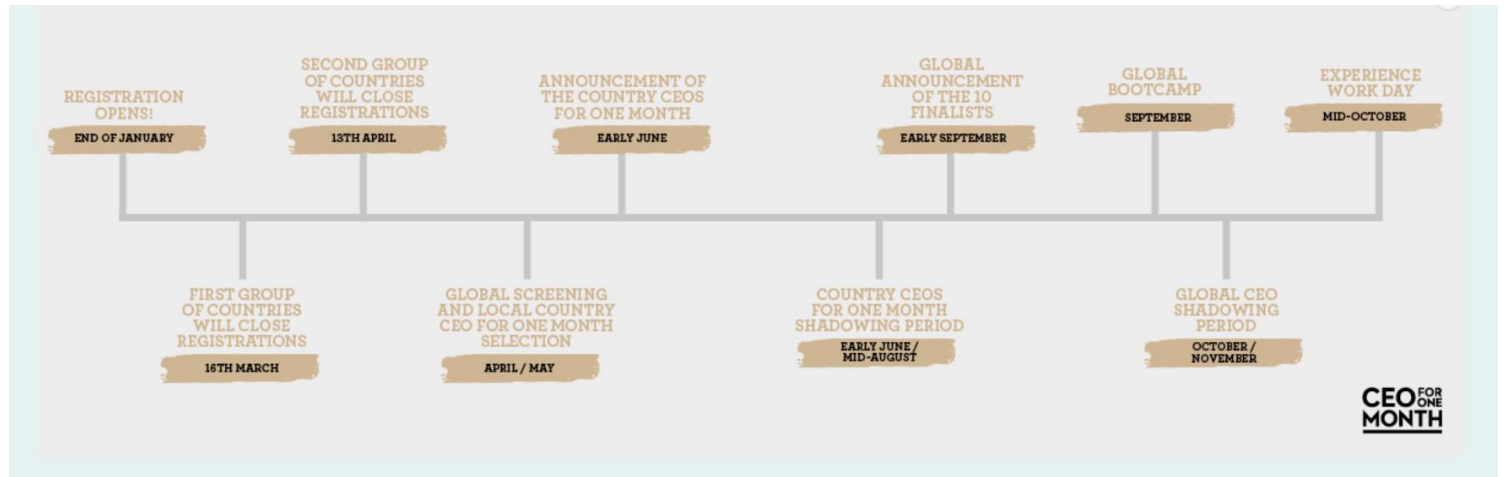

Help your students discover themselves!

Every applicant is invited to a series of online assessments designed to analyze their reasoning skills, situational judgement and personality traits. After completing the assessments, candidate receives a thorough feedback report.
